SPARKLING

Prosecco, Vento Lamberti NV 10
Crisp and delineated, with Bartlett pear, apple, and floral notes.

Champagne, Brut Tradition Jacques Chaput NV 19
Elegance, harmony, and roundness: 3 words that perfectly describe this beaded blend of 80% Pinot Noir and 20% Chardonnay. It's hard to challenge this gourmet expression.

Crémant du Jura, Domaine Rolet 2010 13
Orchard fruits, baker's yeast, and mace; this is a quiet, reserved style—crisp and classic.

Franciacorta Rosé, Berlucchi NV 16
From Italy's first producer of Franciacorta, one of the few rosés found stateside. Strawberries, raspberries and yes, you can say it: "Cream".

Lambrusco di Sorbara, "Vecchia Modena" Cleto Chiarli 2013 12
Riunite, this is not. Aromatic, complex, and refreshing, with raspberry and red cherry, violet, and sweet spices. Lambrusco is back.

WHITE

Roero Arneis, Castiglione Falletto Vietti 2014 16
Known as the "White Barolo" of Piedmont, this wine is a balance of body and crispness. Clean, mineral driven with bright fruits, this Arneis pairs well with crudo, seafood and a sunny day.

Menetau-Salon, Tellier 2015 14
This Sauvignon Blanc is a neighbor of Sancerre within the Loire Valley. Crisp on the palate with rich notes of peach and pear. A perfect companion to crudo and seafood dishes.

Favorita, Lange Tenuta Langasco 2014 10
Known elsewhere as Vermentino, Favorita is a crisp white from Piedmont with notes of citrus, floral and minerals. This wine is a pleasing exchange for Sauvignon Blanc as it is light to medium bodied with balanced acidity.

Kerner, Alto Adige Abbazia di Novacella 2014 13
The illicit love child of Riesling and Schiava. Racy, fresh, and aromatically intoxicating; supple, deft, ripe but not sweet.

Timorasso, Colli Tortonesi-Derthona La Colombera 2011 15
And now for something completely different...A rare varietal from the Piedmont that delivers an umami hit like a secret handshake.

Chablis, Gilbert PICQ 2014 17
With an old world earthy nose, this expression of Chardonnay pairs well with seafood and aged cheeses. Medium bodied and bright, this wine is a refreshing palate cleanser from the new world oak and butter.

WINES BY THE GLASS

Half glasses and bottles available on all selections

ROSÉ

Bardolino, Chiaretto Cavalchina 2015 11

A shameless profusion of strawberry, cherry, and peach; with blithe acidity, subtle tannin, and a spicy finish. In short, a rosé with wanton ways...

Rosato di Refosco, Colli Orientali del Friuli Bastianich 2014 14

Hailing from the far north-eastern corner of Italy, this alliterative amante (Italian for paramour) presents notes of fresh strawberry with citrus peel and rose petal.

RED

Nerello Mascalese, Sicily, Tenuta della Terre Nere 2014 12

This approachable fresh and lively wine is grown on one of Europe's highest volcanic hillsides. On the northern slopes of Mt. Etna, a wine of extraordinary richness, mineral, fragrance, and depth is born.

Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley "North Valley" Soter Vineyards 2013 15

140 characters or less? Some things defy the summary demands of the times: purity, grace, depth, sweet irony, Willamette.

Dolcetto D'Alba, Simone Scaletta 2014 14

Dolcetto means "little sweet one" but the wine is dry and expresses a nose of both ripe, red fruits and earth. This medium to full-bodied wine from Piedmont works well with red meats, truffles, and hearty pasta dishes.

Nebbiolo, "Quadrio" Nino Negri 2013 17

Ruby red with garnet shades, beautiful clarity. The nose is delicate and complex: the essence of Nebbiolo. The underlying structure is vibrant, and elegant with soft tannins and harmonious acidity.

Cahors, "Reservée di Aieul" Château Eugenie 2013 13

Black magic. Cahors is the original home of Malbec, in all of its opaque, brooding glory. Here, the behemoth finds its alchemy.

Sangiovese Carmagnera, "Pietranera" Piaggia 2014 18

The Pietranera is a Sangiovese-based wine from the Carmignano region in Tuscany. Complex nose of ripe fruits and spice, this full-bodied red is a natural with red meats, cheese, and game.
